

John West Féile na nGael and Féile Peil na nÓg Playing Rules 2019

The John West Féile na nGael and Féile na nÓg tournaments are organised under the auspices of An Coiste Stiúrtha Náisiúnta, along with An Coiste Féile Áitiúil. The following are the specific playing rules of the John West Féile na nGael and Féile na nÓg tournaments.

1. General Rules

Games at Féile shall be played in accordance with the relevant playing rules of the particular code, save for the exceptions outlined within this document.

- a) Gaelic Football and Hurling games shall be played in accordance with the playing rules of the GAA effective as outlined in the GAA An Treorí Oifigiúil/Official Guide 2018.
- b) Ladies Gaelic Football games shall be played in accordance with the Ladies Gaelic Football Association's Official Guide 2019.
- c) Camogie games shall be played in accordance with An Treorí Oifigiúil/Official Guide of the Camogie Association.
- d) Handball games shall be played in accordance with the playing Rules and Regulations of GAA Handball Ireland.
- e) Rounders game shall be played in accordance with the GAA Rounders Official Rulebook

2. Tournament Format

- a) The John West Féile na nGael and Féile na nÓg tournaments shall be comprised of host and visiting teams.
- b) Host teams shall normally be clubs that are registered to participate within the U. 14 age group in the designated host Counties.
- c) The playing divisions shall be organised on the basis of 16 teams per division, composed of 8 host clubs and their visiting teams.
- d) Where it is not possible to complete divisions of 16 teams, An Coiste Féile Áitiúil in conjunction with An Coiste Stiúrtha Náisiúnta can request clubs from neighbouring Counties to participate as host clubs.
- e) Should this not be possible, An Coiste Stiúrtha Náisiúnta and An Coiste Féile Áitiúil shall devise a schedule of games for teams participating in divisions of fewer than/more than 16 teams.
- f) Host clubs and their visiting partners will be matched for relative playing strength and will be accommodated together in the same division (and group).
- g) Independent or group teams are permitted to take part in Féile tournament on the basis that they compete as that independent/group team at U. 14 level in their own County. It is not possible for teams to be created for the purposes of participating in Féile.

2.1 Group Stages

For divisions comprising 16 teams:

- a) Divisions will be further sub-divided into groups of 4 teams (i.e. two host clubs and their visiting teams).

- b) The initial group stages of the National Féile will be played on a league basis with two points awarded for a win and one for a draw.
- c) At the conclusion of the three group games, teams shall be ranked from one through four in each group.
- d) Teams ranked one and two in each group shall qualify for the Cup quarter finals while teams ranked three and four shall qualify for the Shield quarter finals.

Where fewer than/more than 16 teams are taking part within a particular division , An Coiste Féile Náisiúnta in conjunction with An Coiste Stiúrtha Áitiúil shall devise a programme of games.

2.2 Teams Finishing Level on Points

Should two teams finish level on points, the ranking of the teams shall be decided as follows:

- a) The winner of the original game between those two teams shall be ranked higher
- b) If that game ended in a draw, the team with the overall aggregate lowest score conceded shall be ranked higher.
- c) If the aggregate lowest score conceded is equal, teams shall be separated by a toss of a coin, with the winner of the coin toss ranked higher

2.3 Three or More Teams Finishing Level on Points

If at the end of the group games more than two teams finish level on points, the ranking of teams within the group shall be decided as follows:

- a) The team with the overall aggregate lowest score against them shall be ranked highest.
- b) If the aggregate lowest score conceded is equal amongst all teams, the total number of goals scored by each team will be used as a further tiebreaker
- c) If the aggregate lowest score conceded is equal amongst two teams, the winner of the original game between those two teams shall be ranked higher
- d) If that game ended in a draw, teams shall be separated by a toss of a coin

2.4 Draw in the Knock Out Stages

- a) In the event of a draw at the quarter-final or semi-final stages ten minutes extra time (2 x 5 mins.) shall be played.
- b) If a draw still results then five frees will be taken by five different players as follows:

Ladies Football:	20 metres	Camogie:	30 metres
Gaelic Football:	30 metres	Hurling:	45 metres
- c) Frees shall be taken at a central point, identified by the referee at the appropriate distance
- d) In Gaelic football/Ladies Gaelic football, frees may be taken from the hand or from the ground. In Hurling/Camogie, the sliotar may be lifted and struck without taking the ball into the hand or may be struck along the ground.
- e) There shall be no goalkeeper or other defenders facing the free takers.
- f) Only points shall be counted.
- g) Should a taken free strike either upright or cross bar and go over the bar, the score shall be counted.

- h) Should a taken free bounce off the ground prior to going over the bar, the score shall not be counted
- i) Shots that result in a goal or a wide, rather than a point, shall not be counted
 - i. The team with the most points scored, following five frees per team, will be deemed to have won the game.
 - ii. If teams remain level after five frees per team then ‘sudden death frees’ are to be taken. One player on each team shall take a free each until one team has scored a point and the other misses. Players who took a free as part of the original series of five frees shall be eligible to take a free in the ‘sudden death’ section.

2.5 Final Draw

In the event of a draw in the final, ten minutes extra time (2 x 5 mins.) shall be played. In the event of a draw after extra time, the trophy shall be shared. A toss of a coin shall determine which side will receive the trophy for the first six months. The loser of the toss shall be presented with the winners medals.

3. Playing Panels

- 3.1 All Gaelic Football, Hurling and Camogie games shall be played on a 15-a-side basis, with the playing panel confined to a maximum of 24 players per team with a minimum of 19 players, unless Coiste Stiúrtha Náisiúnta Féile has decided that a certain Division may deviate from the 15-a-side rule.
