Sponsor Message

Thar ceann Electric Ireland, is cúis áthais dom fáilte chroíúil a chur roimh rannpháirtithe agus lucht féachana chluichí ceannais Mionúir Camógaíochta Electric Ireland.

On behalf of Electric Ireland, it is my pleasure to extend a warm welcome to all participants and spectators of the Electric Ireland Camogie All-Ireland Minor Championships finals.

Our partnership with the Camogie Association, now in its second year, continues to be a source of immense pride as we support the aspirations of young Camogie athletes nationwide. It has been a pleasure to be able to continue to back young Camogie players up and down the country, through our sponsorship of the Electric Ireland Camogie All-Ireland Minor Championships.

To celebrate another year of our sponsorship, Electric Ireland has been shining the spotlight on a standout performer each week from the Championship via our social media platforms, culminating in the weekly reveal of the 'Player of the Week' on Electric Ireland's X page (@electricireland). The excitement builds as we anticipate the summer announcement of the Electric Ireland Camogie Minor Star Awards, celebrating the extraordinary accomplishments of these young athletes.

Electric Ireland Minor Moments podcast is also back for another season, bringing you inspiring stories from Camogie legends. Their journeys, from their Minor playing days to major life achievements, offer a unique glimpse into the heart of the sport.

Keep an eye on Electric Ireland's social media for all the latest updates using the hashtag #ThisIsMajor. Today, as the finals unfold, we cheer on every team, from Minor A to Minor C, in their quest for glory. Here is to the moments that will define careers and inspire futures, both on the field and beyond. Best of luck to all!

Is mise le meas,

Pat Fenlon
 Executive Director, Electric Ireland

Fáilte ón Uachtarán

A chairde,

It is with great pleasure that I welcome all of you joining us today for the highly anticipated Electric Ireland Minor Championship Finals.

Over the course of this weekend, we have a total of five finals taking place. In the Electric Ireland Minor A and Minor A Shield finals, which take place on Saturday 27th April in UPMC Nowlan Park as a double header. We will see Tipperary take on Waterford (4.30pm), and Dublin will play Wexford (2.30pm). On Sunday 28th, Kinnegad GAA will play host to the Electric Ireland Minor B and Minor B Shield finals, which see Armagh and Kildare (3pm), and Meath and Westmeath (1pm) battle it out for their respective All-Ireland titles. The Electric Ireland Minor C Final will also take place on Sunday in Drumlane GAA at 2pm with an exciting match expected between Tyrone and Mayo. I want to extend my congratulations to all the teams for making it to the finals, and regardless of the outcomes, you should be proud of your accomplishments this season.

Let us remember the significance of showing respect to today's officials, volunteers, and staff. Their unwavering dedication to Camogie is crucial to the success of the Electric Ireland Minor Championships, and we are truly thankful for their contributions.

I want to express my sincere appreciation to our sponsors, Electric Ireland, for their continuous generous support. Their sponsorship has not only raised the profile of Camogie but has also helped us reach a wider audience, ensuring that our minor players receive the recognition they deserve.

In conclusion, I wish all the players, management, and supporters the best of luck in today's matches. Regardless of the outcome, cherish the experience of competing in an All-Ireland Final. After all, it is the minor moments that last a lifetime!

Electric Ireland Minor C Final Mayo v Tyrone

When the teams met in the group stages at St Patrick's Park in Omagh, it took a goal from Hannah Hauttman with almost the final stroke of the game to earn a share of the spoils for Mayo. This was a real to-and-fro affair, though Tyrone's quick brand of camogie had caused the visitors some problems initially. Eimear Cunningham, Niamh McElduff, Eva Cullen, Catherine Mackin and Rhianne McLoughlin's are all considerable performers for the Red Hands.

They will, however, be disappointed that they conceded two first-half goals to Cathy Greally and Kate Tener to fall behind despite having had so much of the play. They themselves responded impressively, however, with a pair of goals from Cullen and another by McElduff to lead by seven points at the break.

Mayo dominated after the resumption thanks to Hauttman, Megan O'Malley and Greally. Tyrone only managed three points in the second half, all from Catherine Moohan, but that contribution looked enough to secure victory until the brilliant Hauttman drilled to the net.

That meant they finished first and second in the group, Mayo's marginally superior score difference earning them top seeding. As a result, the westerners were too strong for Cavan in their semi-final at Ballinasloe. Tyrone had to work much harder to get over the line against Wicklow, edging the verdict by just two points at Dunganny.

On the evidence of the group game, there will be little between these two.
